

Planning Your Event

The Bedford Village Inn

Decidedly small... intentionally quiet... ultimately delightful.

Each of our fourteen guest suites is appointed with period antiques and custom fabrics, artwork and oriental carpets. The Inn has been designed to meet the various needs of our guests, a perfect place to leave your cares or plan tomorrow's activities. The Bedford Village Inn is proud to have achieved the distinguished AAA Four Diamond Award for both Inn and Restaurant.

The Great Hall is the heart of The Bedford Village Inn complex. Sweeping in from a majestic deck and soaring three stories, the room itself seems to open its arms and welcome you and your special guests. A perfect setting to host cocktail receptions, dinners and social affairs, the Great Hall can accommodate up to 220 guests. The Overlook room with its charming old world elegance adds a relaxed atmosphere to your corporate board meeting, dinner party, wine dinner and social gathering for groups up to 60.

Our newest addition, the Woodbury cottage, is an elegantly preserved Federal-style Colonial cottage offering the perfect setting for a management retreat or to entertain those special clients. Three distinct bedrooms, two full baths, exquisite living room, dining room, porch and the Bradbury Conference Room complete with conference seating for 12 are included in your accommodations.

Selecting a Menu

Function menus are designed to afford you a wide range of options. Your menu choice, whether one of our recommendations or your special request, will be created using the freshest and very best ingredients by our talented culinary staff. We will be happy to suggest wines from our extensive wine cellar to pair with your menu selections.

Our Sales Office will be happy to assist you make the perfect choice. We look forward to the opportunity of working with you in the near future and promise you a memorable event at the Bedford Village Inn.